Established in 2010, the University International College (UIC) is an academic unit providing certificate and non-certificate education, student exchange programs, and language proficiency tests. UIC strives to nurture academic talents with practical skills.

Programs offered by the faculty include: the undergraduate program (Bachelor of Arts in Foreign Language Studies with three concentrations in English, Portuguese, and Spanish); the post-graduate programs (Masters and PhD in Teaching Chinese as a Foreign Language, Master of Arts in Foreign Language Studies and PhD in Creative Writing). In addition, UIC offers General Education courses including English, Chinese along with DELE Online Preparation Course.

Further Studies/ Career Prospects

Our graduates have impressive destinations after they finish their studies. They are admitted to University College London, The University of Edinburgh, University of Barcelona, The Johns Hopkins University, New York University, King's College London, University of Durham, The University of Manchester, The University of Melbourne, The University of Sydney, The University of Queensland, Lund University, University of Glasgow, The Chinese University of Hong Kong, The Hong Kong Polytechnic University, etc. Some of the graduates are employed to teach in renowned institutions.

Awards

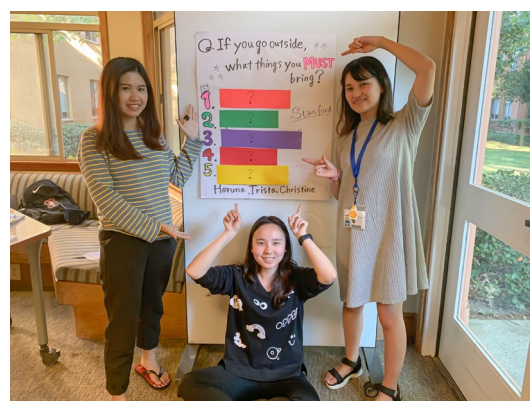

This year, UIC students received scholarships and awards from major institutions and competitions. For instance, prizes for the Promotion of Spanish Language and Culture from the Consulate General of Spain, Hong Kong; the champion of the Macao-wide English Speech Contest; Merit Award of the 2nd Macao Universities Diplomatic Speech Contest and awards of creative writing competitions. In UIC, around 40 full-time teachers contain terminal degrees, and 10 of them are PhD supervisors. Many teachers have received the university's Teaching Excellence Award, and many of their outstanding research were published on renowned journals.

Trainings and Public Exams

UIC currently houses two centers: The Center for International Education, Macau and Macao Centre for Research of Latin America. They intend to provide professional trainings for foreign language and Chinese language educators and a research platform on Latin America for the Guangdong-Hong Kong-Macao Greater Bay Area respectively. Meanwhile, UIC is also the test center of IELTS and DELE. To ensure students can put their knowledge into practice, students can participate in the student exchange programs, organized by UIC, and study abroad in the partner institutions.

International Communications

Aside from student exchange program, UIC also provide summer or winter programs for students. Participants can visit the partner institutions in Germany, Portugal, Spain, United States, and United Kingdom. UIC also engages in the university's international communications. In August, 2022, M.U.S.T. President Joseph Hun-wei Lee, accompanied by Haoyan Song, UIC Undergraduate Program Director, visited Portugal and the University of Oxford.

Our Goals

With the advantages of multilingual environment in Macao and the rapid development in education, UIC will continue improve the academic research and public services in Macao and the Greater Bay area, in the areas of economics, society, culture, and language.

UIC will host the 29th Annual Conference of the International Association of Chinese Linguistics (IACL-29) in late May 2023. Taking this opportunity, UIC will continue to face new challenges, embark on new journey for achieving the next milestone.
